Rediscover "Retro"!

Routed fronts from the "Retro" series impress with their unique style, bringing a well-balanced blend of current trends and 1960s design into the interior. Gentle curves in the routing add lightness to the fronts, creating an original visual composition with a distinctive character. They look great in every colour.

Modern

Routed fronts from the “Modern” series draw inspiration from the minimalism present in today’s design trends. They feature a subtly integrated frame around the panel, adding depth and a defined contour. This delicate detail allows the fronts to blend well with various styles, encouraging creative combinations of colours and materials.
